

‘They always ask us what we think,
they never tell us what to do!’

Cultural Insight

Following a focus group for an Australian bank, two newcomers to Australia - one Indian and one Chinese - privately asked me, a Dutch facilitator, ‘why are Australians such poor managers’.

When I asked them why they thought so, they replied: ‘they always ask us what we think, they never tell us what to do’.

Cultural backgrounds shape our perspectives and expectations around leadership

WORKING WITH ANYONE, ANYWHERE

www.cultureresourcecentre.com.au

Our expert interventions support developing the cultural competence to leverage cultural differences, to work more productively, and to enjoy greater success in our multicultural and globalised world.

Intercultural learning & development services

Developing cultural competence: training, coaching, webinars/presentations, consulting and tools & assessments centre

 Culture Resource Centre /

LEARNING FROM ANYWHERE, ANYTIME

joost@cultureresourcecentre.com.au - CRC Office 1300 017 418